CLOSE OF THE LEGISLATURE IS MARKED BY USUAL SCENES.

Clock Turned Back for Adjournment at Noon Today After an All Night Session Ending at 5 O'clock A. M.

MUCH IMPORTANT LEGISLATION

Much Important Legislation Was Passed at the Session Just Closing—Adjournment Taken at 11:15 This Morning Till Tomorrow Morning.

Publishers' Press Telegram.

HARRISBURG, May 16.—The Legislative session of 1907 practically ended at 5 o'clock this morning when the House after a night of filibustering decided to adjourn. Today the General Appropriation Bill will be disposed of and the usual presentation of gifts will take place. A rush for out-of-town trains will be made. Not in years have such scenes been witnessed in the Capitol as marked the closing hours of the legislature.

Early yesterday afternoon the Senate cleared its calendar and settled down to wait the pleasure of the House. The lower branch found itself clogged in the closing hours with conference reports. Senate bills and the Senate and jetsam of minor objection.

The legislative session was resumed at 9:45 where conference reports were adopted. The House struck out the item of $10,000 for appraisement of properties to be included in the proposed Capitol Park extension in the general appropriation bill and concurred in other amendments to the bill which appropriates $25,500,000. At 11:10 the House adjourned until 11:15 tomorrow morning. The Senate took similar action. About 75 Senate bills on the House calendar were not acted on.

Features of the day were final passage of the Dunsmore Railroad Commission bill, agreed upon at last night's conference and the Cussey Liability bill. The liability bill was the bitterest pill negotiated by the corporations at this session. Its restoration by the Senate to the original form as passed by the House was an unwelcome surprise for which Senator Blewett of Lackawanna, Democrat, is blamed. When the bill was reached in the morning Senator Brown of Philadelphia tried to amend by striking out the contributory-negligence clause. This was defeated and the bill then passed finally by a vote of 38 to 7.

Both branches permitted the Dunsmore Railroad Commission bill to hang fire all day, the Senate unanimously adopting at 6 o'clock the report of the conference committee, while the House did not reach the question until 10 o'clock, when it accepted the report without a dissenting vote.

Out of the grit, as a whole, it is certain much important legislation has been secured. It is also manifest that laws solemnly pledged have been lost because of the political subservience to corporate obligation. A balance will be struck and credit given.

Closing scenes of the final night session differ little from those which have gone before. Music, mirth, rattle-fire roll-calls, in which the clerks were the initiators and referendum, buoyant boisterousness, a storm of "dead" files and exchange of personal pleasantries added to the joy of the visitors. Both branches were thronged with visitors, many women being present.

BRIDGE QUESTION

Will Be Aired Again Tonight at a Meeting of the Connellsville Merchants' Association.

The free bridge question will be revisited again this evening at a meeting of the Connellsville and New Haven Merchants' Association held especially for that purpose in the Y. M. C. A. building this evening.

The merchants are determined not to let the bridge matter drop. For the past several weeks there has been nothing doing along this line, or in fact since the viewers made their return to court. The merchants expect to start the ball rolling tonight.

Nuptials at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch Quiet, Followed by Brilliant Reception.

The wedding of Miss Mary Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch, of Greensburg and Joseph DeWalt Wentling, which took place at Greensburg last evening at 6 o'clock, at the bride's home, was a brilliant affair. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Father M. A. Lambing of Scottsdale, assisted by the Rev. Father Edwards, O. S. B., of Greensburg. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Temple O'Neill of Allegheny and Miss Margaret Coulter. John F. Wentling, Jr., a brother of the groom, and District Attorney of Westmoreland county, served as best man, and the ushers were Alexander Coulter of Greensburg and Clay F. Lynch, brother of the bride.

The ceremony was performed in the main hall of the new residence of Mr. Lynch on Bonker Hill, overlooking Greensburg, where an altar was folio. The bride's gown was an emerald creation of white satin, trimmed with delicate pointe lace, with a full tulle veil fastened with orange brooches. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore empire gowns of mauve chiffon over white satin and pink chiffon, trimmed with lace and birds of paradise hair ornaments. They carried Madame Chataey roses, showered with orchids.

The wedding guests included only members of the immediate families and friends of the bride and groom.

The house guests were Miss Genvieve Winsatt and Miss Helen Shen of Washington, D. C.; Miss Delta Criley, Kansas City, and Mrs. Julia Pay, Annapolis, Md. Miss Winsatt wore white silk and lace; Miss Shen a Princess gown of white lingerie. Miss Criley was gowned in green sea foam silk, trimmed in lace. Mrs. Pay wore black embroidered chiffon, trimmed with jet. Mrs. Lynch wore a white robe, with touches of pink roses and chantilly lace.

At the bride's table were seated the bride and groom, Miss Katherine Coll, Connellsville; John F. Wentling, Jr., Miss Mercedes Wentling, Miss Helen Shen, Clay F. Lynch, Miss Delta Criley, Howard Patton, Miss Margaret Coulter, W. C. Moorhead, Miss Margaret O'Neill, Midshipman Charles McKenna Lynch, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coulter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wentling left for an extended wedding tour in the East and on their return will make their home in Greensburg, in a residence adjoining that of the bride's parents. Mr. Wentling is Superintendent of one of the plants of the Keystone Coal & Coke Company.

THE COURIER'S PONY CONTEST.

It Is Coming Down the Home Stretch With a Bunch of Contestants Neck and Neck. Who Will Come Under the Wire First? Pony Outfit Eagerly Watched for by the Little Folks as It Passes Along the Streets These Fine Days.

Since the appearance of The Courier prize pony upon the streets there has been a rush to file balloons at The Courier office, which very thoroughly demonstrates that some of the little boys and girls of town, and out of town, are interested enough in getting a pony and the finest rig to be found in this section out of all east. There has been some wonderful working in the past few days, and some that had a tendency to lag behind the race have placed themselves in the front rank of the competition. It's an even chance now with half a dozen of the contestants and to the one that works hardest will go the neatest pony outfit that has ever appeared on Connellsville streets.

The officers elected for the ensuing year yesterday were: State Warden, William B. Purcell; State Treasurer, F. R. Reilly; State Attorney, Michael J. McEnery, and State Physician, M. F. Shields; State Deputy, Patrick Lynch.

Many thousands of votes have already been cast in the contest, which will determine who shall have this splendid outfit, but it will take many more to decide who shall have the pony and the pretty little trap.

The Courier trap was selected by four of Connellsville's best known business men. They know exactly how much was expended for the rig and they are judges of its value. There's nothing cheap about the whole outfit. There's nothing second hand.

BROKE LOSING STREAK

Connellsville by Fine Playing Won From Beaver Falls Yesterday.

CHIP FRANCIS SAVED THE DAY

By Fine Catch in Middle Field With Two Men Out and Two Men on Bases—Jacquot Pitched a Heady Game and Kept Hits Scattered.

Fast fielding by Connellsville and poor baserunning on the part of Beaver Falls, coupled with costly errors by the visitors, permitted the home team to break its losing streak and take the third placers into camp yesterday by the score of 5 to 2. Jacquot was in the box for Connellsville and was found for 11 safe hits, one of them a Homer, the first knocked on the local grounds this season. It was done by Pfeifer, the King slugging two of the visiting aggregation. Umpire Hanley officiated, and there wasn't a kick. He did excellent work and showed the boys that he knows the game from start to finish. Hanley will officiate again this afternoon when the same teams come together.

The game was saved for Connellsville by the sensational catch of Chip Francis in the fifth inning. With two men on bases and two out Kenworthy lumbered one to middle that looked to be good for three bases if not a home run. Francis started back and circled around as a high wind caused the elusive sphere to change its course. After a heart-breaking wait, where seconds seemed hours, Chip nailed the ball and the day was saved.

The home boys played in splendid form. Team work was dominant and fast play saved several scores. They also ran the bases well, taking advantage of many misplays by the Beavers. The work of Heintz at short for the visitors was a feature. Time after time Heintz nailed a runner by getting balls which went through Elsner. He had one error, but this misplay didn't amount to much.

Mathers got to first in the opening inning by Heintz's wild throw to the sack. He went to second on Hart's intended sacrifice. Merriman's bad throw going way past first, on which Mathers kept going and tallied. This was all Connellsville did in this inning.

The Beavers' got busy in the second. Kenworthy singling and Pfeifer lancing out a home run to deep right, the ball hitting almost at the fence and rolling clear of it. The Beavers took a balloon ascension in this inning, letting Connellsville score three. Birmingham opened with a smashing single. Amsbury attempted to sacrifice but made first safe, as Merriman tried to get Birmingham at second. His throw was high and Birmingham went to third, scoring when Kenworthy threw the ball way over Elsner's head. Amsbury went to third before the ball was returned. Amsbury and Moran then pulled off the "squeeze," the former scoring. Jacquot singled and reached third on a bingle by Mathers. Curtis tried to catch Mathers stealing second but his throw was bad and Jacquot came romping home from third.

In the fifth Connellsville drew another run. Francis made a pretty bingle and went to second on a wild pitch. He scored when Kenworthy dropped Elsner's fly. This ended the scoring. Following is the score:

Notes of the Game.
Francis saved the game.
Well, Butler must be a hoodoo.
Five runs on five hits. Going some.
Beaver Falls got 11 hits but only two runs.

Jacquot pitched a heady game. He kept the hits well scattered and fast. Heeding did the rest.

Tiffany, for the second game in succession, didn't get a hit.

Birmingham is clouting the ball to good advantage. His hits count.

It's hard to hold a team in last place. Latrobe has had more than its share. Last Saturday Fairmont was in the hole while the cellar champion-ship for today rests with Clarksville.

Watch Greensburg climb. They nosed the Beavers out of second place yesterday.

That Elsner is some Hitler. His batwing was a feature of the game.

The boys got the "squeeze" to working yesterday. Seemed like the combinations wouldn't come against Butler.

Hanley works with the indicator again today. He is there with the

Then we have a subscription blank to work on. Note how you can pile up votes:

goods, knockers to the contrary notwithstanding

Butler was a hitting team but there are others. Beaver Falls for instance Amsbury and Birmingham each kept the same number of chances, five, without an error. Some of them were hard.

Gaier will probably dish up the speedy ones for Connellsville today.

Hart played a pretty game at short. Most of his assists were on sizzlers that got through Elsner.

Not an error in the Connellsville column. That's fielding somo.

Malarkey will probably present almost a new team tomorrow. Some fans of his are due here and we have reputation of being there with the goods.

The batting order was changed for luck. The combination worked fine.

Birmingham was the only man to get two hits. He was one of the last men on the team to get a hit after the season opened. That shows how little you can depend on the looks of a team before it works a while.

Pat Moran missed his hit yesterday. It is possible he may have two coming today.

Last hundred twirlers seem to be pie for Connellsville. Ever hear of Osborne of Charlsburg?

Billy Earle's bunch was bumped again at Fairmont. Hard luck, Elmer.

Don't get disengaged.

If Latrobe would only wallop Butler and give us a chance to land in first place again. A stern chase is the long chase, though, and it may be a week before the position is finally decided. If then,

Fairmont defeated Scottdale 7 to 1. Butler walloped Latrobe 7 to 5 and Clarksburg lost to Greensburg 12 to 9 in the West Penn yesterday.

Unifonton has won six straight games. They are due to win two more when they stack up against Braddock for the balance of the week.

Charleroi shut Steubenville out yesterday 2 to 0. The Stubs are leading the P. O. M. race.

SOMERSET NEWS.

Happenings of a Day Among the Frost Sons of Thunder.

SOMERSET, May 15.—Yesterday evening both juries in the cases of John Lemon Davis against Dr. John W. Hawes and in the case of M. L. Bowman versus W. W. Dempsey returned verdicts, both verdicts being in favor of the plaintiffs. In the Hawes case, the first one mentioned, the jury awarded Mr. Davis $550 damages for the shortening of his left leg as the result of surgical treatment by Dr. Hawes for a fracture. Davis averred that Dr. Hawes had charge of the fractured limb and that it was altogether his fault that when the broken bones united the limb was found to be about three inches shorter than the right leg. Dr. Hawes stated that the shortening of the limb was due to injuries caused by the plaintiff's moving about, but the jury seemed to think otherwise.

In the case of M. L. Bowman versus W. W. Dempsey the jury returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff, Bowman, $95.00 damages for the cutting of certain timber in Jefferson township. Dempsey, who is a member of the Dempsey Lumber Company, was charged with trespass by the plaintiff and damages were awarded as stated above.

Judge Holt of Beaver is at present hearing the case of the Somerset Colliery Company versus A. F. John, a well known coal operator of Uniontown. The Somerset Colliery Company is a well known coal mining corporation whose field of operation is near Hooversville, Telford Lewis being at the head of the concern. It is alleged by the plaintiff company that John owes about $17,000 to the concern as the balance of a mortgage of $50,000. John avers that there were agreements that in case certain buildings were not erected by the concern he was to be paid the sum of $5,000 and he also alleges that the damage to the property as a result of careless mining operations will entitle him to $3,700 additional. Other credits to Mr. John are reported and it is stated that these amounts due Mr. John from the plaintiff company will easily cover the $17,000 alleged to be due the company from Mr. John. The plaintiff company is represented by Attorneys Lewis C. Colborn and Ernest O. Kooser and it is not likely that the case will be given to the jury before this evening.

Judge Holt of the Beaver county bench is assisting Judge Francis J. Kooser in holding a term of civil court here this week.

Sheld Zimmerman, a well known dealer in real estate, whose home is in Johnstown, is in Somerset in connection with his business interests in this county.

Roy Coffroth, son of Charles H. Coffroth, a merchant of this town, has returned from Front Royal, Va., where he has been attending school during the past winter.

The Misses Martha and Lenora Scott, daughters of Attorney Lewis R. Scott, have returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where they spent the winter.

Dr. Charles F. Livingood, a well known medical practitioner of Boswell was in town yesterday.

Miss Bertha Weimer and mother who have been visiting at the home of Daniel Miller on Main Cross street for some time, have returned to their home in Wilkinsburg.

Rev. John C. Powell recently purchased the property on Catharine street in which the late Rev. Jacob F. Shaefer resided. Ex-Sheriff James B. Taylor, owner of the property, sold the same for a consideration of $4,000.

Miss Emma Heffley of Berlin is a guest at the Main street home of Attorney and Mrs. John H. Uhl.

Tomorrow night in Donges Theatre minstrelsy will reign supreme. It will be the occasion of the local talent minstrel show given under the auspices of Meyersdale Aerie No. 1255, Fraternal Order of Eagles. Tickets are going like hot cakes and we predict that by the time the doors are opened standing room will be at a premium. The boys have been down to practise for some time and will no doubt give a creditable performance.

Rumor has it that parties are dickering for a scope of land in Youngkin's addition to this borough for the erection of a glass factory. Good glass sand rock can be secured in almost unlimited quantities near here and fuel is plenty and cheap. For these reasons we do not see why such an enterprise should not pay well.

ROCKWOOD.

Bright Paragraphs From the Big Somerset County Borough.

ROCKWOOD, May 16.—Yesterday was pay day for the employees of the B. & O. at this place and down the branch. Many a handsome sized check was cashed for the men here.

What change will be made in the B. & O. schedule which will go into effect on June 2, seems to be a question upon which no one can throw any light. Rumor here has it that the Meyersdale "lack" as well as trains 56 and 57 will be taken off, while from Johnstown comes a report to the contrary. Another report here is that another through train will be put on. These rumors have no foundation and the only thing to do is to wait until the new schedule has been officially announced. It is hoped that there will be a change as the present schedule seems to be very unsatisfactory.

Miss Missouri Younkin of West Broadway spent Tuesday in Connellsville visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Shaefer.

THE GUERRILLASOF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

One of the prominent features of the Fayette county primary campaign has been the performances of the Uniontown Herald, owned and controlled, and as to its political utterances, personally directed, by one of the factions. It is generally understood that this paper is a campaign publication pure and simple. Through its ownership is Republican, it has been launched as an "independent" newspaper, for the reason that under this guise its owners think themselves at liberty to misrepresent, vilify and abuse the opposing faction, and by this means to win out at the primary.

This explains why The Herald from day to day and recently every day, not only by editorial utterance, but also by alleged news features with flattery headlines, supplemented by cartoons atrocious in execution and conception, has sought to influence the Republican voters of Fayette county against certain candidates and members and in favor of others.

The Courier solemnly warned the proprietors of this paper that the Republicans of Fayette would hold them and the political faction they represent responsible for all the injury they might do to the cause by this guerrilla warfare, and indications are not lacking already that this responsibility is being placed.

There are no gangsters in the Republican party of Fayette county that we recognize. The term is an invention of the opposition.

It is the duty of the Republican press to defend Republican officials from unjust attacks, since these attacks are assaults against the Republican party.

The Courier believes in the integrity of the men whom its voters have chosen to represent them in the government of the county, State and nation.

It will continue to defend them all from the covert or open attacks of opposition, whether partisan or factional, and those who get "swatted" in the melon may rest assured that they have been occupying a wrong position else the Big Stick would never have hit 'em.

The Town Council seems to have gotten slightly tangled in the notion of its mission. The new members are little new to the business yet and the opposition is not giving them any assistance. The Courier would suggest that politics be dropped by both sides for a while and an effort be made to look after the public business in a public spirit.

Somerset county is having an early potato crop.

Youngburgh water is flowing into Southern Fayette county. Connellsville is the center of coke region water supply as well as of the region itself.

We have protested without avail. The evil work goes on. It is time to denounce. It is time to speak plainly concerning things the Republicans of Fayette county have a right to know. The virtue of a mollycoddle is purely negative.

Let us be cool, but not cowardly; and above all let us be just, and let us have fair play, to the end that we shall have fair weather after the present storm.

A CHALLENGE.TO CIRCULATION.

The Unontown Standard has a bad streak of the Green-Eyed Monster, hence the following bold challenge:

To the owners, publishers, circulation and circulation. There is no safe circulation and safe circulation. One method prints, sells and delivers only such editions as supply the public demand for the paper. The other prints the same number of copies, but boys throw around the country in piles, around, while the "affidavit" men swear to a statement of circulation. This fake business does not deceive the public.

Since The Courier is the only Fayette county paper that has the courage to print detailed statements of circulation under oath, it is evident that this anonymous effusion has reference to us.

We may be permitted to say that the circulation of The Courier is not a fake circulation in any sense. The copies printed are circulated in a bona fide manner, and we have reason to know that they are also read in a faithful manner by those who receive them. We have never yet failed to get the right returns from them, either in advertising or other results.

The unusual number of copies, of The Courier now going to Unontown, which have aroused the jealousy of our esteemed contemporary, but it carefully remains from identifying him. What's the name of the C?

The base ball clubs of Connellsville and Unontown have something more solid to play for than a pennant.

The change in Tri-State ownership does not, we trust, involve any change in policy.

"Ringsters" and gangsters" are always public officials of the opposite party, faith or factional adhesion. The terms are no longer significant because of their reckless use by political organs.

The feminine train never wrecks anybody but itself and its owner's happiness.

statements concerning it amply confirmed.

We challenge our esteemed Uniontown contemporary to an investigation of our respective circulations, with the agreement that the results of such investigations shall be published in both papers side by side; and further, we extend this challenge to any other daily paper published in Fayette county.

HERO MEDALS AND NATIONAL SPIRIT.

The bestowal of a batch of Carnegie hero medals and rewards is a public as well as a private benefaction. It is a public plaudit as well as a personal recognition.

Heroism is virtue which always has its own reward and never seeks or expects another, but generous appreciation cultivates its growth, especially in the rising generation, just as the bright sunshine and the refreshing rains from heaven transform the helpless acorn into the mighty oak.

The importance of encouraging a national spirit of courage and self-sacrifice is mighty and manifest. The safety of the nation and its peace with the world depends upon the high character of its people. History teaches us that from the first dawning of the day when time began heroes have ruled the world. They have not all been kings and leaders of men, but they have been those who knew not meanness, nor selfishness, nor cowardice.

We would make virtue popular with the coming citizen, we must show our appreciation of it by outward and visible signs. When we lose the one and become indifferent to the other, we will have become degenerate and debased, fit subjects for the enslavement of a filter nation.

The Carnegie hero medals serve an excellent purpose, just as the Carnegie tree libraries do. Both aim to exalt the national character, and both should be encouraged and supported by intelligent and patriotic citizens.

"SWATS" ON THE "SNOOT."

The Uniontown Genius complains that when it looks over the fence and makes a "snoot" at Republican "gangsters," The Courier "swats" it over the head.

There are no gangsters in the Republican party of Fayette county that we recognize. The term is an invention of the opposition.

It is the duty of the Republican press to defend Republican officials from unjust attacks, since these attacks are assaults against the Republican party.

The Courier believes in the Republican party and has faith in the integrity of the men whom its voters have chosen to represent them in the government of the county, State and nation.

It will continue to defend them all from the covert or open attacks of opposition, whether partisan or factional, and those who get "swatted" in the melon may rest assured that they have been occupying a wrong position else the Big Stick would never have hit 'em.

Somerset county is having an early potato crop.

Youngburgh water is flowing into Southern Fayette county. Connellsville is the center of coke region water supply as well as of the region itself.

Nothing is lost by being courteous even to the opposition.

Abe Root says politics brought him to Pitt. There are others closer to home threatened in a similar manner. They should stop, look and listen.

The Uniontown Herald refuses to "cool cool," and it is consequently in danger of getting warmed up.

Boss Root of Sun Francisco acknowledges the draft. There will be some Pennsylvania acknowledgments due soon.

An aged inmate of the Washington county almshouse died of joy on being removed. What's the matter with Washington's almshouse that people are so glad to escape from it?

Senator Crow hasn't advertised himself very much, but he has done a lot of good for his constituents that the Uniontown Herald hasn't advertised.

Council meetings have the saving grace of not being monotonous, but they would be more profitable if they were more businesslike and less highly keyed.

A new process has been discovered whereby steel may be toughened. It comes at an opportune time, when railroad accidents due to broken rails are becoming so common.

Vanadium is a more welcome discovery than the tough steel unearthed at Harpersburg.

The Uniontown Genius has discovered an old man, the Sea in the Republican-party of Fayette county, but it carefully remains from identifying him. What's the name of the C?

The base ball clubs of Connellsville and Uniontown have something more solid to play for than a pennant.

Legislature Adjourns Leaving Some Campaign Promises Unfulfilled.

DUNSMORE BILL PATCHED UP

Provides for State Railway Commission Which Will Have No Power to Enforce Its Rulings—Other Pledges Redeemed in Satisfactory Manner.

Harrisburg May 16—Bills to carry out nearly all the pledges of the Republican and Democratic parties in the last campaign in Pennsylvania have been passed by the legislature which adjourned finally at noon today. Some of these bills have already been signed by Gov. Stuart and others will be acted on within the next 30 days. Among those which have been approved are the 2 cent fare bill, the railroad freight bill and the act appropriating $600,000 for free sanatoriums for indigent consumptives.

The appropriation to the public schools has been increased from $11,000,000 to $15,000,000 for the next two years and large increases have been made in the appropriations for the state insane hospitals and the care and treatment of the indigent insane. The appropriations to the public and private charities exceed the estimated state revenues of $11,000,000 for the next two years and it is expected the governor will have to reduce the amounts of many of these bills.

The governor says it will be necessary to cut from 40 to 60 per cent of the appropriations if the soldiers' pension bill is approved for the full amount of $6,000,000. Senator Cochran of Lycoming, the author of this bill, is pledged to ask the governor to scale the appropriation down to $2,000,000. A similar request will be made by the soldiers who were inactive in the movement for the passage of the bill.

Campaign Pledges Not Cared For. No legislation was enacted to carry out the campaign pledges for the return of all personal property tax and the liquor license fees to the counties; civil service for counties and limiting public franchises. An employers' liability bill and a bill creating a railroad commission to both of which the political parties are pledged were passed in the closing hours of the session. The railroad commission bill was amended in conference committee to meet the views of the governor and Attorney General Todd and then adopted.

Nearly one-third of the 2,100 bills which were introduced during the session carried an appropriation. Over 1,000 of these bills were reported from committee and acted upon. Many bills went by the board because of the lack of time in which to consider them. The senate cleared its calendar early and devoted the remainder of the session to the consideration of the reports of conference committees and business from the house. The house worked all day on its calendar of third reading bills and held an all night session.

The legislative halls were crowded with spectators. The customary distribution of gifts to the speaker and other officers of the house by the members was made.

The total appropriations made by the present legislature aggregates $37,520,042.32. Of this $25,522,763.05 is in the general appropriation bill; $20,174,954.27 for state, semi-state charitable institutions, educational monuments and homes and $5,822,325 for the soldiers' pension bill. Added to the estimated state revenue of $4,000,000 is $10,000,000 surplus in the treasury making a total of $54,000,000. Figuring that all the appropriations would be used this would leave $3,000,000 deficit in the treasury.

Commission's Power Limited. The railroad commission bill was presented to the house by the conference committee and was immediately sent to the printer. The principal change in the bill in committee was to strike out the provision giving the commission power to enforce its rulings. The bill now provides that the commission shall report findings and recommendations to the governor and secretary of internal affairs. They, through the attorney general can then institute court proceedings—if they see fit. The number of commissioners is fixed at three and at $8,000 each.

The bill as introduced provided for the commissioners one of whom was to be the secretary of internal affairs. As amended the bill gives the secretary no place on the commission.

The house bill giving to electric light heat and power companies the right of eminent domain was defeated in the senate. The following house bills passed finally in the senate:

Making it unlawful for a miner in the anthracite regions to have charge of more than one breast chamber or working face.

Fixing the maximum rate of fare to be charged by street railroads at five cents for continuous ride in one car within the corporate limits of a city.

The house passed the salary adjustment bill. In the senate the house bill fixing the salaries of poor directors according to population which had been postponed indefinitely, was reconsidered and passed.

Making authority nine foremen eligible for election as mine inspectors without examination.

YEAR IN JAIL.

Mrs. Mary Heck Charged With Concealing Birth of Child.

UNION TOWN May 16—Mrs. Mary Heck who pled guilty last December to concealing the death of her child and was sentenced to a year in the county jail has been released. Her home is in Uniontown, Cambria township. The babe was found in a building on the same lot in which the defendant lived by a neighbor who was attracted by the cries. On December 15 Mrs. Heck was called before the court and sentence imposed. She turned to her home after regaining her freedom.

Among the papers entered for record at the Court House yesterday was a patent to Sylvanus Thomas, executor of the late Martha Fife, for 210 acres of land with allowances. The land was surveyed on September 11, 1788, in pursuance of a warrant issued February 23, 1788, and granted to David McKeown. The right and title of McKeown in and to the property by sundry conveyances and assurances has since become vested in Fife and through his will to the present executor. By deed just recorded Thomas conveys this property to Daniel B Zimmerman for a consideration of $4,050. The deal was effected this week.

Jesse E Showalter and James W Showalter have executed a release in favor of E Sturgis Showalter setting forth that they have each received their share of the effects of the late Alva B Showalter of Smithfield. The latter died February 8, 1907, intestate and E Sturgis Showalter was appointed administrator and proceeded to settle up the estate.

CUP SERIES.

R. P. Kennedy Suggests Games Between the P. O. M. and West Penn Champions.

R. P. Kennedy, the well known Uniontown attorney and a baseball fan of the deepest dye, was in Connellsville last evening and while he made a suggestion which he had also been working on in Pittsburgh for a post season series of baseball games between the P. O. M. Champions this season and the winners of the pennant in the West Penn League. Mr. Kennedy while in Pittsburgh conferred with President Richard G. Gun of the P. O. M. League and President Charles Powers of the West Penn regarding a post season match between the winners in the two leagues.

Mr. Kennedy's idea is to have five games between the two winners and the team winning three out of the five shall receive a fine silver loving cup to be presented by Mr. Kennedy.

That much interest in the P. O. M. League race is being taken by old time ball fans throughout Pittsburgh and Allegheny counts is shown by the fact that a number of those who were formerly prominent in baseball circles will take part in the post season match.

NEW TARIFFS HAVE SOME NEW RULES.

Pennsylvania Sheets Have Been Arranged Differently
Than in Former Years.

STRAIGHT ADVANCE OF 10 CENTS

Baltimore & Ohio New Tariffs Have Some Very Rigid Regulations That Will Have to Be Observed by Shippers—Prepaid Charges One of the Rules.

(From the Weekly Courier.)
The new freight tariffs that went into effect May 1 are quite interesting. Shippers are only learning their details and mastering their intricacies. The Pennsylvania tariff sheets are compiled in quite a different manner than heretofore. The old geographical designations so long familiar as "Clearfield," "Snow Shoe," "State Line," "Latrobe," "Westmoreland," and so on have disappeared from the sheets. There is an alphabetical list of mines, and to get the rate it is necessary to locate the index number in the geographical list. From this index you obtain the "Group Number." Certain mines are grouped in certain geographical manner. By a third reference to an index corresponding with the group number with the position in the point of destination you find the rate under the group number. This is more along the lines of the Baltimore & Ohio tariffs as they are in groups for destinations and in branches for shippers.

There is a straight advance in the tariffs on the Pennsylvania of five cents per ton, except on the Buffalo Division, which are unchanged, and to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, etc., on the West Jersey & Seashore. Egg Harbor has a reduction of 25 cents per ton. Hammondton 15 cents, and points on the Gettysburg & Harrisburg railroad are lowered 15 and five cents. Philadelphia & Reading, Staten Island R. T. railroad and the roads embraced within the term "eastern points" are advanced five cents excepting the Buffalo, Atch. & Atlantic railroad, which are unchanged.

The new Baltimore & Ohio tariff effective May 1 contains a couple of regulations that are of interest. One provides that the rates will apply only on coal loaded into cars from regular tipplers. Coal loaded into cars from side tracks where there is no tippler is taxed 50 cents a ton additional to the regular rate and this goes into the pockets of the B. & O. without any division with connecting roads. Further, all coal loaded in this manner must be prepaid in full to destination. That seems a pretty stringent regulation. The other regulation provides that shipments from the B. & O. destined to points on the New Haven railroad will not be accepted unless the charges are fully prepaid through to destination first. The construction placed on this regulation is that the B. & O. doesn't want any New Haven business, for it is held that no shipper would take New Haven business on a small margin of profit and pay the charges through.

Rates are advanced five cents on the Baltimore & Ohio and its connections excepting on its own Shenandoah Division, to half a dozen points in Virginia and West Virginia on the Cumberland Valley to Maybrook and Campbell Hall, N. Y., for points beyond, to points on the New York Central and on the New Haven, to Norfolk & Western points, to points on the Southern Railway, Valley railroad, and portions of the Washington Southern. A reduction in rates is made to certain points on the main line of the D. L. & W. railroad, and a strong advance to other points, and a uniform rate of $1.00 is made to points on the N. Y. & L. E. railroad of the Jersey Central.

DON'T LIKE ORCHARD.

Talesmen in Haywood Case Admit Bias Against State's Main Witness.

ROOSEVELT'S NAME COMES UP

Darrow Says the President "Butted Into" case, While Senator Borah Defends Him—Counsel Consult Haywood About Challenges.

Bolse, Idaho, May 16.—The unexpected uncovering of a vein of prejudice against Harry Orchard and his testimony during the further examination of talesmen in the trial of William D. Haywood led to the first sharp wrangle between counsel and involved the name of President Roosevelt in an acrimonious discussion. The day and the incident began with Samuel Wingate, the eleventh talesman; in the hands of the defense for examination in chief.

Questioning had proceeded a short time when it developed that Wingate was biased against Orchard and unwilling to accept the testimony which it is expected he will give against Haywood. The defense naturally tried at once to show that Wingate's state of mind on the subject was not such as would warrant removal from the box, but when the talesman recrossed to the hands of the state, Senator Borah quickly drew from him the factitious statement that he could act under any circumstances give evidence to Orchard's testimony. Wingate was, on this, excused, the defense excepting to the court's ruling and from thenceforward the state was particular to test all the talesmen on the point.

Talesman Evicted for Bias.

Talesman A. F. Burns, who finally succeeded to Wingate's seat, said under oath that he was not prepared to give the same credence to Orchard that he would extend to other witnesses, but his attitude was not deemed sufficient to warrant his removal. The question recurred at the afternoon session when Senator Borah put the question to Talesman William McGuinn, who succeeded Talesman Henry to seat No. 6, after the latter had been evicted for implied bias on testimony of R. C. Lovelace, the first witness called, who swore that Henry had told him that Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone would not have been brought here if they had not been mixed up in the case.

Clarence S. Darrow of the defense, objected to a question, and Senator Borah sharply replied:

"After the immense latitude the defense has taken in regard to McPartland, Taft and Roosevelt, I did not think they would stick on any technicality at this late day."

"We did not ask as to the effect of McPartland's testimony," said Darrow and Richardson together.

"If Roosevelt is to be brought here to testify we might have something more to say," went on Richardson.

"Roosevelt can take care of himself wherever he is," retorted Borah.

"Well, I don't know about that," said Darrow.

Darrow Takes Exceptions.

Judge Wood directed counsel to proceed with the case, but Darrow, who was standing, took formal exception to the remarks of Borah.

"I will be glad to eliminate Roosevelt if you will," replied Borah. "He was brought into the case by the defense."

"He came in himself," said Richardson. "He is 2,000 miles away, and he writes letters."

"He was brought in by his own buttin," added Darrow.

The judge overruled the objection to the question, the talesman saying that he did not have any bias or opinion in the matter, the defense noting an exception, and the incident closed.

The jury box was finally filled with 12 talesmen subjected to examination and temporarily passed by both sides at 3:40 o'clock in the afternoon, and the court announced that it was in order for both sides to exercise peremptory challenges. Counsel for Haywood asked for a few minutes' delay, and for five minutes they gathered around the chair of the prisoner and engaged in earnest consultation as to their course on the men occupying the jury box.

The state exercised its right first and excused William Vanorsdale, a grocer, who has occupied seat No. 2 since the opening day of the trial. George F. Maw, a young farmer with some strong opinions as to the acts of certain elements in the labor unions of the country, was then called to the vacant place. The state passed him, and he was still in the hands of the defense when adjournment hour was reached.

Hughes' Pet Measure Passes.

Albany, N. Y., May 16.—The public utility bill which creates a state commission to supervise and regulate transportation, lighting, and other corporations operating in New York City, has passed the assembly by a unanimous vote. The bill, which was urged by Gov. Hughes, will now go to the senate. The bill has been bitterly opposed by several corporations and political leaders in the legislature and throughout the state, until at a caucus it was endorsed and its passage recommended. All the Democratic members supported the measure.

POLICEMAN SHOT; THREATS TO LYNCH.Tremendous Excitement at Bellevernon This Afternoon Over the Affair.*THOMAS GUESS WILL DIE.

Shot Through the Head by William Gates, Who Was in Turn Shot by Citizen Before He Could Be Placed Under Arrest.

A shooting that will end in murder, according to advice from Bellevernon, occurred there shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Thomas Guess, a policeman, was shot through the head by William Gates, an ex-policeman whom Guess had placed under arrest. The shooting happened on the main street of the town, and threats of lynching are being freely made against Gates.

Before he was subdued he was shot through the shoulder by a citizen who took up the chase. Gates, after he shot Guess, finished a revolver and fired at random at anyone who attempted to stop him. He was finally shot through the shoulder and fell to the ground, when several men ran up and disarmed him. Gates was then placed in a wagon and driven to the lockup. A great crowd was surging about there when the Courier went to press. The officer was dying. The latter is married, having an invalid wife and three children. Gates was always known as a despoiler.
